

2009 TASMANIAN WOMEN'S SNOOKER CHAMPIONSHIP

Claremont RSL – July 18

This event was to be run in conjunction with the Atkins Shield (a women's teams event – North v South). It was originally scheduled for the Launceston Workers Club.

When it became apparent that the teams' event would not eventuate and that there were no players from the North or North West, the President of the TBSA (Robert Higgins), who was also the Tournament Director, made an "executive decision" to play it in Hobart.

Another "executive decision" was made on the Saturday morning when only two players – Tracey Baylis and Emily Cowie – actually made an appearance.
